

Sector Fellow / Intern, India

Unitus Ventures

Location: Bangalore, India

Assignment: Full-time

Duration: 6-9 months

Unitus Ventures - Overview

Serving the low-income masses is a huge investment opportunity – a market of 1 billion people in India (often referred to as the Base of the economic Pyramid, or “BoP”) who are seeking better livelihood opportunities and access to affordable, quality products & services that improve their lives. As the economy continues to increase in optimism and grow, we select and invest in the most promising entrepreneurs tackling India’s greatest challenges using profitable business principles that can achieve massive scale.

As a venture seed investor, we invest very early, just after proof-of-concept. We invest modest amounts in a large number of companies and we crowd-in a community of experts / advisors to help founders to scale their impactful startups.

We invest across nearly all sectors that can be addressed with asset-light models with a primary focus on sectors including – healthcare, education and fin-tech. We also opportunistically invest in sectors such as ag-tech, mobile/ consumer, and other businesses that are innovating for the masses.
